CLEVELAND TROTTING MEET.

An Exciting Race in the Free-for-All

Pacing Event. CLEVELAND, July 27 .- There was a good crowd at the second day of the grand circuit meeting here, and the time was somewhat slow, owing to a fall of rain during the afternoon. In the 2:15 class trotting Martha Wilkes, the favorite, won in straight heats without much of a contest. Grant's Abdallah had no difficulty in securing the free-for-ail pace. The 2:27 trot was the greatest race of the year and the time phenomenal when it is consedered that the track was heavy. H. C. T. was a warm favorite in the pools, but lost the first heat to the Raven. He wan the next two handlify, but in the fourth and fifth Magnolia surprised the spectators by beating both norses out with but very little trouble. The sixth heat developed another surprise when Green, by good driving, sent the Raven in front. Darkness put an end grand circuit meeting here, and the Baven in front. Darkness put an end to the race. It was found necessary to postpone the next race and the attempt of Globe and Belle Hamin to beat the world's record for teams.

WASHINGTON, July 27 .- Hutchinson's great work in the box backed up by faultless fielding was the combination which defeated the Senators.

BROOKLYN, July 27.—The home team easily defeated the Claveland's today in a well played game. Both teams made the same number of hits, but those of the home team were bunched

New York, July 27.—The New Yorks beat the Louisvilles today in a raggedly played game, in which the errors of the Colonels, were very costly.

PRILADELPRIA, July 27.—Two wild throws by Wiening in the fifth inning, which let in three runs, were the primary cause of the local club's defeat today by Pittaburg.

Bostos, July 27.—Boston had the best luck today and won as the Cincinnati's errors were the most costly.

Balvimone, July 27.—The Orioles wiped the earth with the Browns t day. Galvin was pounded all over the field, but the Browns could not hit McMahon.

WONDERFUL CURES!

NOTHING MEAN ABOUT US!

PHYSICIANS

In the Detroit Free Press June 7, sixth page, under the head of "Distinguished Doctors," we see the names of the members of The American (Alopathic) Medical Association, who are meeting in that city, and the specialties in which they are engaged, and also the pictures of 28 of those who can afford it.

If this is their advertisement, and we think it is, we wish to congratulate the principal physicians among the Alopaths for their success as advertising physicians, and we feel sorrow for the common herd of Alopathic physicians who do not DARE to advertise. What does this meeting amount to, anyway? Is it anything more than a mutual admiration society and a free advertising scheme for its members? Will the rest of the Alopathic physicians call them "quacks" after this? We hope not, as the members of the American Medical Association have as much right to advertise as Dr. S. CLAY TODD, and we wish to congratulate them on their success as Advertising Physicians.
